I understand and agree to the following:

- I understand that I must complete all work assigned for the course. Grade calculation is 90% coursework and 10% summative exam. Average percentage for course including summative exam shall be no lower than 60% for credit to be awarded.
- I will make sure that the work is my own. Plagiarism or falsification of documents or work will not be accepted. I understand that if I violate this, I will be removed from the program, not receive credit, and not allowed to return.
- I understand that incomplete courses WILL NOT be carried over into the summer or the next school year.
- I will work weekly to complete courses and have progress completed as stated.
- I understand that I can work anywhere high speed internet is available. This includes the school computer lab, local library, and from my home.
- I understand I need to make arrangements to take the summative exam for the course upon completion at school.
- I understand that credit recovery courses are an independent program and there is no tutor. I am responsible for monitoring my own progress.
- I understand that the Waterford School District is not liable for the loading or performance of the program on my personal computer. If I have difficulty, I will contact the online mentor. Emails will be checked (Mon-Fri at 4:45pm).
